Help. No power or consumption (Got windmills) : r/Kenshi

I do however have 2 windmills that each produce 28 power when I check them (57% wind). I have no buildings besides a few iron and stone refineries/processors, but only the manual ones work obviously.

r/Kenshi on Reddit: I don't understand why my windmills aren't

I don't understand why my windmills aren't generating any power? I'm really confused and this is really stressful. Could someone please help me? I just want to play

Am I understanding wind power without batteries correctly?

It seems to me like if wind is running at 50% output, it doesn't matter whether the total output is 25, every object that uses power will run at 50% power without batteries.

What are wind generators even for? :: Kenshi General Discussions

Apparently batteries are not implemented in the game yet, so basically the only viable power method is through farming, why are the wind generators even doing in the game right now

Buildings have no power :: Kenshi General Discussions

So I'm 60+ days in and I'm starting to build my first base. I have researched a lot while exploring and have set down a bare-bones base with a Auto iron ore mine, a hybrid stone mine and

Wind generators never correctly place. :: Kenshi General Discussions

Wind generators never correctly place. Is it me but in building mode I'll place a wind generator and then it randomly faces some other direction once I confirmed to place it. Or is it just

Windmill Wind Speed : r/Kenshi

World map is divided into blocks. You can sometimes see line dividing them. Those blocks seem to have (at least had before) different wind speeds so it may be wise to build windmills in a couple of them.

No wind since update 0.93 :: Kenshi General Discussions

Hi Guys Since the latest update, I havent had wind for 15days, Is this normal? Everything is at a stand still since I got no power. They should really add some solar power or something.

Power generation mechanics? : r/Kenshi

You can find such info if you google the kenshi wiki. It has the min max values for wind energy. I actually never wikied the biofuel sections because I hate having another thing to "feed" besides the squad. I
